

Paul Dolan

Paul R. Dolan is the former Executive Director of ABC News International and manages negotiations and news exchange agreements with broadcasters from Australia, China, India, Germany, France, Russia, and other countries. He has also served as Editorial Manager of the ABC News program 20/20. He served as Executive Director of the One to One Foundation, which was based at ABC and funded civil rights, housing, and journalism projects focused on the developmentally disabled. Mr. Dolan helped coordinate the philanthropic response of The Walt Disney Company and ABC following the 9/11 terror attacks. He also edited the report for the Regional Plan Association, which helped lead to the successful preservation of the 22,000-acre Sterling Forest. As a Deputy Director for Governor Hugh Carey Mr. Dolan helped edit and review an independent council's report on the finances and operations of New York's educational, health, prison, and mental health systems.
